Your sketch

The illustration may contain up to a total of 10 of the following elements (each element can be selected several times):

- Lipid bilayer, cell or cellular compartment outlines
- Proteins (membrane-bound, soluble, nuclear)
- Nucleic acids (DNA, RNA, miRNA, plasmid)
- Intracellular compartments (mitochondrion, chloroplast, vacuole, nucleus, etc)

Please have a look at the example figure "Your sketch – our illustration" at <http://www.bioartworks.com> for orientation.

The shape and position of each object will be drawn according to your sketch. Give colors and any annotations to help the illustrator in brackets on the side of each object. Please name police font and size (in points) for annotations. Unless other specified, the illustration will be delivered as JPEG file.
